4. Monitoring Report

Mentor-mentee formal/informal meetings are conducted periodically (at least once in a week). The following are some guidelines for mentor and mentee.

(i). Mentees are requested to take note of the advice or tips or guidance received.

(ii). Mentors may be given preferences to act as project supervisors of the mentees project work -both design and fabrication project and final semester project work.

(iii). Mentors to help mentees in preparing and clearing the arrear papers if any.

(iv). Monitoring the mentees academic performance put them back on track if any deviations are found.

(v). Mentor-mentee should share a cordial relationship and mutual trust always.

(vi). Mentors can create awareness on the value-added courses like NPTEL and other non-formal courses offered by KEC and guide the mentee in choosing courses based on their qualities/willingness.

(vii). Mentors can motivate mentees to participate in activities like aptitude test and other soft skill development programmes.

(viii). Mentors can guide mentees in identifying conferences/journals to present technical papers related to their project work.

(ix). Mentors can support in fine tuning the Bio-data sheet of their mentees.

(x). Mentors can present about the professional societies and clubs/cells and motivate to participate in these bodies.

(xi). Mentors can support mentees to identify right companies to get placement and internship based on individual interest and competence.

(xii). Right students may be motivated for Higher studies and appear for GATE, CAT, IELTS, GRE etc.,

(xiii). Mentor to listen patiently to the mentees and act as a moral supporter.
