Dear Participants,

Greetings from FICCI!

On behalf of Ministry of Food Processing Industries and FICCI, we thank you for joining us in India's First Virtual Processed Food R&D Expo 2021 which was held from 20th to 22nd January 2021.

We hope that you found the Virtual Platform immersive and interactive for networking opportunities with exhibitors and the live panel discussion sessions informative and worthwhile. We hope the deliberation and presentations made by the eminent speakers were able to touch upon critical points pertaining to Research & Development in Food Processing Sector.

We are sincerely thankful to all stakeholders for coming together and witnessing the one of kind India's first virtual R&D exhibition, over the 3 days thousands of people across food processing value chain and from across globe participated in the event. The exhibition generated huge amount of interest amongst food processing industries and many successful business matchmaking took place.

On suggestions of stakeholders, we are happy to share that the virtual R&D Exhibition will remain live and anyone user who has registered can visit the platform to witness innovative technologies developed by Indian academic institutions. We will continue adding innovative projects by these institution on this virtual platform. Also, visitors can anytime access and view recording of 6 Webinar sessions which were organised during initial 3 days event.

To view, Research Projects & Technologies on Display & Exchange Business Cards with exhibitors, please use login credentials given below:
