MY STORY - BY A BUSINESSMAN

Resource Person:

Mr. M.Sivakumar,

Vishal Bharath Processing Mills, Erode.

Date: 09/11/2021 Time: 10:45 AM

Venue: Srinivasa Ramanujan Seminar Hall, IT Park

Overall report of the activity:

The guest lecture on the 9th of November 2021 commenced at 10:45 and took place at the Srinivasa Ramanujan hall. This lecture revolved around a business model developed by the chief guest, Mr.M.Sivakumar, who also is a trust member. The event commenced with a prayer followed by the Welcome address.Dr. R.Parameshwaran, President of IIC, KEC delivered the presidential address after which Mr.Sivakumar, a second generation entrepreneur initiated his very inspiring and informative speech.

He started off the lecture with the story of how he ended up where he currently is, his stance in life and moved on to an enlightening discussion on difference between businessman and entrepreneur. Mr.Sivakumar's latest project, a wastewater treatment plant using the MVR technology turned heads and drew interest of every single person present in the room. He emphasised on the importance of sustainability and ethical businesses. Mr.Sivakumar eventually even gave the attendees tips on how to exceed, gain maximum efficiency and momentum even while doing the littlest of tasks using the 3 D's- Decision, Discipline, Determination. He divulged on the absolute importance on setting self deadlines and strength-weakness analysis.

This lecture popped off and was much needed among budding minds, considering the discussion about cultivating good habits, nurturing relationships, living an unhurried life and most importantly thankfulness, the 4 rules of IKAGI. The eventful afternoon moved to an end with a very interactive question-answer session where the overwhelming number of questions were answered beautifully and aptly by our Chief guest. The lecture came to a close with the mark of Indian National anthem.
